ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This section is used to thank mentors and colleagues or name the individuals or institutions that supported your research or provided special assistance, such as consultation or aid. Acknowledge any owners of copyrighted materials that have granted you permission to reproduce their work. Describe all sources of funding from outside grants, fellowships, awards, or self-supported funding. For all grants include the identifying grant number. Acknowledgment of the source(s) of support is important ethically in all research publications and presentations, including theses, to give the sponsors the recognition they deserve, and also to disclose publicly the organization or persons funding the research.

For doctoral submissions, the doctoral committee must also be listed and identified as such in this section and the chair of the committee identified. (Do not list the doctoral committee on the title page.)

If the acknowledgments are more than one page, do not repeat the title. Leave two blank lines between the title and the first line of the text. Double-space the text of the acknowledgments, and format it to match the main text.

(Note: begin roman numeral pagination on this page as page number iii (ii if copyright is not asserted); continue until the body of the thesis begins.)

ABSTRACT

This section is for the abstract. Keep in mind that the abstract will be published in the ProQuest Dissertations and Theses database (PQDT) with no further editing or revisions. Do not include footnotes, references, or unexplained abbreviations. There is no word limit on the abstract, however it should be concise.
